FocusOn®:
College Funding

Welcome
Our Commitment
Workbook and Evaluation Form
Three Steps to College Funding: Estimate the Cost
The Importance of Acting Now
Current Cost of a College Education
Future Annual Cost of College
Factor in Your Timeline
Calculate the Cost
What Is Your Savings Goal?
How Will You Pay for College?
Three Steps to College Funding: Establish a College Fund
How the Typical Family Saves for College
Taxable vs. Tax-Free Savings Options
College Savings Options
529 Plans
529 College Savings Plans
Other Advantages of 529 Plans
Coverdell Education Savings Account
Roth IRA
Taxable Accounts
Stocks, Bonds, Mutual Funds, ETFs
Investing Considerations
Sample Asset Allocation Model: Aggressive Allocation
Sample Asset Allocation Model: Conservative Allocation
Making a Consistent Commitment
Setting a College Savings Goal
Saving for College and Retirement
Three Steps to College Funding: Evaluate Other Funding Sources
How the Typical Family Pays for College
Financial Aid
Grants and Scholarships
How Is Financial Need Determined?
Applying for Financial Aid
Assets Not Counted for Federal Aid Purposes
Loans
The Burden of Student Debt
Additional Funding Sources
Retirement Plans
Home Equity
Gift from Grandparents
Education Tax Credits
Countdown to College
Putting Your Knowledge to Work
Evaluation Form
Thank You